

The Villages of Longmeadow Non-Discrimination Policy

The Villages of Longmeadow homeowners association, including its directors, is committed to following the letter and spirit of the Federal Fair Housing law by respecting the diversity and differences within our neighborhood by providing equal treatment to all, without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, and disability.

The Villages of Longmeadow homeowners association, including its directors, is also committed to following the letter and spirit of the Virginia Fair Housing Act, by respecting the diversity and differences within our neighborhood by providing equal treatment to all, regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, and disability.

The Villages of Longmeadow homeowners association, including its directors, is also committed to following the letter and spirit of Chesterfield County Ordinance Sec. 15-72 in compliance with state and federal law, by respecting the diversity and differences within our neighborhood by providing equal treatment to all, without regard and to not refuse to hire, discharge from employment and community events, or discriminate against any person regarding compensation, terms, conditions or privileges because of disability, age, sex, race, color, religion or national origin.

The Villages of Longmeadow homeowners association is committed to keeping informed about fair housing laws and practices, and will not tolerate non-compliance. This commitment will be demonstrated through the general practices of The Villages of Longmeadow homeowners association and through advertising and the media that everyone is welcome and no one is excluded. The Villages of Longmeadow homeowners association will additionally inform our neighborhood and members about their rights and responsibilities under the fair housing laws.

Non-Discrimination Statement

The Villages of Longmeadow homeowners association complies with the letter and spirit of the Virginia Fair Housing Act, the Virginia Fair Housing Act, and the Chesterfield County Ordinance Sec. 15-72 in compliance with state and federal law, that prohibits housing discrimination to certain persons under each law. Discriminatory practices are prohibited.